ADVICE FROM A CATERPILLAR

The Caterpillar took the hookah out of its mouth, and asked her: “Who are you?” Alice replied she didn’t know because she had changed so many times that day and told him that she couldn’t remember things as she used to, so the Caterpillar asked her to repeat ‘You are old, Father William’, which she repeated with a lot of mistakes.

Alice wanted to grow again, so she tried one part of the mushroom and it made her shrink until her head hit her feet. Quickly she ate from the other part which made her grow until her head and neck rise far above the treetops.

Alice eats again from the mushroom until she is reduced to her normal size. She walked on and reached an open place in the woods with a little house in it, and as she was too big to enter, she ate another time from the mushroom.
