

Some ideas – conflicts, emotions

Act it out!

Imagine a conflict, and find solutions to how you could solve it peacefully. Discuss what was the source of the conflict. How many possible outcomes can there be to a problem?

How would you argue with someone older and more experienced than you? How would you try to convince an older person of the solution you think is right? Why is this difficult?

Act out the conflict with different outcomes!

Act it out!

How can you show the following: pride – bragging, respect – flattery, cooperation – submission, threatening – anger

Discuss the differences between each pair.

Act out situations in which you demonstrate the above!

Act it out!

Imagine and act out two situations: when animals show what outdoorsmen and conservationists are like in the forest, and when they show what people who are noisy and don't care about nature are like in the forest! How did your behaviour differ in the two situations?
