THE MAN WITH SEVEN KNIVES

The sun is shining. Grandmother sits on the bench in front of the house. She grinds coffee with her coffee grinder. Kasperl and his friend Seppel built it themselves.

When you turn the crank, the melody of Nuts in May sounds. This is Grandmother's favorite song.

Suddenly a man jumps out from behind the bushes. His beard is black and shaggy. There are seven knives in his belt.

He shouts: „Give me that thing!“ He holds a pistol in one hand. With his other hand he points to the coffee grinder.

„What are you allowing yourself!“, grumbles Grandmother. Then her eyes fall on the belt around his stomach. „Are you the robber Hotzenplotz?“

„That's me!“, growls the man. „And now, don't make any stories!“ He raises the pistol.

Grandmother has to give him the coffee grinder.

What else is she supposed to do? Everyone is afraid of the robber, even Sergeant Dimplemoser. And he's from the police!

„You count slowly to 999“, Hotzenplotz orders. „Then you can call for help. But not sooner!“

Then he runs away.
