MAGICAL BOWL

Keloglan went fishing to catch some fish so on the edge of the river he threw his fishing-rod to the water, soon he caught a very big fish. But it was not like any other fish. Its eyes were as brilliant as the stars, and its scales were as bright as silver, it was a very beautiful fish. Keloglan carved its scales, and wanted to cut its belly and clean it. It was when he saw a big bowl inside the fish. The bowl was made of copper. First, he was shocked but then he got very happy "I must take both the bowl and the fish to my mother. She'll be happy, too.", he thought. He wanted to wash the fish with the bowl so he took some water from the river and poured the water on the fish but at that time he couldn't believe his eyes! He saw that gold was flowing from the bowl instead of water. He tried a few times to make sure. But again he saw that gold was flowing . "I think it is a magical bowl, I should tell my mother right away", he said and he ran all the way home as fast as he could.
