THE RICH BOY

"I think it is a magical bowl, I should tell my mother right away", he said and he ran all the way home as fast as he could. He told everything to his old mother. She got happy and said : " My bald son, my cute son. I am so happy that you could find a magical bowl. Now that you have some money you shouldn't spend all of it and you need to learn how to save your money." Keloglan started laughing. " My mom, my lovely mom, don't worry. This money never finishes. I have the magical bowl. I can get more and more coins just by pouring water from the bowl. We can have delicious food every day. Now we can have a great life." Said Keloglan to his mom. His mother was not happy anymore but she was worried. Worried about her son to forget his kindness and to be someone who doesn't care about the others , someone who is never loved. Keloglan never listened to his old mom.

Keloglan soon became very very rich, even the king of the country was poorer than him. He built a wonderful palace and he had a lot of servants and he was eating the most delicious meals every day. After sometime, Keloglan started to be spoiled by richness, he wasted a lot of gold unnecessarily. His mother said " My bald son, my bald son, listen to me, you need to be careful about spending your money. You are wasting your money while there are people who are in need and you can help them if you want" But he even did not listen to his mother's words. "I have a magical bowl and I can do whatever I want and I can have everything I want" he said." The magic of the bowl will never end so I will always be rich and I will never lose money. I was the lucky boy who found the magical bowl so I don't have to share it with the other people. They can go to the river and find another magical bowl if they can." he said to his mother.

His mother got very sad and she left the palace and went back to their old, small house. People started to lose their interest in him because of his pride and bad behavior. He had changed since he got rich. He never helped people, even the ones who were his friends. And soon people started saying that Kelolan used to be a better person when he was not rich but now no one likes the new spoiled Keloglan. But Keloglan wouldn't care about what people were saying about him. He was just thinking about having more and more money.
