

Plan your own newspaper

Plan your own newspaper!

How often should your newspaper appear?
Who are your readers? Plan the cover page.
Recruit journalists.
What kind of sections should appear regularly in your newspaper?
Research real newspapers to get more ideas.

Did your newspaper turn out well? Think about how you could publish and distribute them.

Act it out!

What is an editorial team ?
What are the duties of the chief-editor?
Who write the articles?

Imagine a situation, where you are the chief-editor of a newspaper and you have an employee who doesn't write good articles. What do you say to him / her?

Act out the situation!

Act it out!

What is a section in a newspaper?
What kind of sections are there in newspapers for young people your age?

Imagine a situation, in which your newspaper starts a new section. It is intended to be a guide for people in your age. Search for potential journalists and conduct an admission interview with them.

Think about what criteria you should consider when hiring a new employee. What is important for you? What does not matter?