

The Little Prince

Draw me a sheep

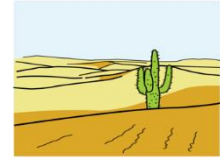

Antoine de
Saint Exupéry

He always lived alone

One day his plane broke down

In the Sahara
Desert

He had little water

He fell asleep at night

Suddenly he was awakened

By a soft voice

It was a little boy

Who politely
asked him

"Draw me a sheep""

The pilot was surprised to see someone

The serious child repeated
his request

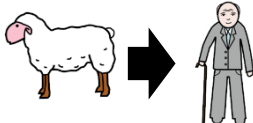

All the drawings
were rejected

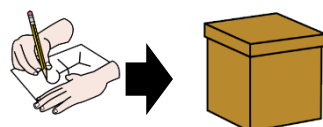

The first sheep
was sick
malade

The second was a ram

The last one was too old

So he drew a box, saying the sheep was inside

The Little Prince was delighted

And so began the mysterious
encounter
