

The Little Prince

The Fox

 One day, the Little Prince met a fox	 The fox was hiding under an apple tree	 The Prince asked him to play, but the fox wasn't tamed	 The Prince asked what "tamed" meant
 "It means to create a bond," said the fox	 The fox had a boring life	 He asked the Prince to tame him	 The Prince agreed
 He learned patience and silence	 He learned the meaning of rituals	 Then came the day to say goodbye	 The fox was sad and explained it to the Little Prince
 The Prince felt guilty and said that it was the Fox's fault	 The fox said Yes	 But now he loves the wheat fields that remind him the golden hair of the Little Prince	 The fox gave him a secret "What is essential is invisible to the eye"
