

ODISEO

Nadie y los hermanos cíclopes

|                                                                                                                                         |                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                            |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|  Odiseo y suscompañeros                    |  Son capturados porPolifemo                             |  Polifemo se comea dos prisioneroscada mañana                                               |  Luego sueltaa susanimales ycierra laentrada |
|  Odiseo quiereescapar                      |  Encuentra ungarrote queconvierte en unaLanza |  Pide ayuda a sushombres                                                                         |  Por la noche,Polifemoregresa                          |
|  Cuida de suscabras                      |  y se come a otrosdos prisioneros                     |  Odiseo le ofreceun poco de vino                                                               |  Polifemo lobebe                                          |
|  Luego lepregunta aOdiseo su nombre |  Odiseo, astuto,responde«Nadie»                  |  El cíclope sequeda dormido                                                                    |  Odiseo y sushombres sepreparan                      |
|  Entoncesatacan alcíclope           |  Polifemo llama asus hermanos paraque le ayuden  |  Pero sus hermanospiensan que estáloco cuando les diceque «nadie le haatacado». |  Polifemoestáenfadado                                |